

ORDINANCE NO. 00-27

BUILDING CODE AMENDMENT-CAMPGROUNDS

WHEREAS, the County of Kendall has adopted ordinances, regulations, and codes which regulate construction; and

WHEREAS, the codes regarding building construction have extended to include decks and sheds located in campgrounds; and

WHEREAS, decks and sheds in campgrounds are not typically permanent structures attached to the ground; and

WHEREAS, it is not cost effective for the County to continue requiring permits and conducting inspections for such temporary uses; and

WHEREAS, the County Board wishes to remove the requirement for permits and inspection on temporary structures within designated campgrounds.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNTY BOARD OF THE COUNTY OF KENDALL THAT:

Ordinance 2000-06, Section 2-BOCA, Paragraph BOCA Section 102.1 shall be hereby be amended to read as follows (underline is new text):

"102.1 General: The provisions of this code shall apply to all matters affecting or relating to structures, as set forth in Section 101.1. The construction, alteration, repair, addition and removal of all structures shall comply with this code. Decks and sheds located in approved campgrounds which are not permanent in nature shall meet all applicable building codes, but shall not require a building permit, and shall only be subject to an inspection during the annual campground inspection period."

This This Ordinance shall be effective immediately upon approval.

APPROVED THIS 18th DAY OF July, 2000.

ATTEST:

Clerk

Chairman