ABOUT CONAN

Looking for a big, beautiful, boisterous boy? If so Conan is your guy! He was named because his athletic build as he reminds us of Conan The Barbarian. Like Conan he is loyal and large, but unlike his name sake he is a bit of a baby. He is kind of afraid of big dogs and much prefers small canine pals. He is very striking in person- someone docked his ears and tail and we don't agree with having that done - but since we can't undo it, we all agree that it just adds to his charm. Plus you won't have to worry about his tail knocking things off your coffee table. Conan was found as a stray and we don't know why no one came looking for him, but we often ask ourselves this question. He loves people and bonds easily. His ideal home would have an active family that would shower him with attention and teach him some obedience. He is not hyper just in need of learning the basics. He enjoys long walks and is great on a leash. We would say his favorite thing is just hanging out with his people or person and soaking up attention. He is a staff favorite, something about him just melts your heart. Because he is dog selective we feel a home with no other dog would be best for him. Plus he would love being the center of attention. Stop in at Kendall County Animal Control and meet Conan. His adoption fee is $120.00 and his is neutered, up to date on vaccinations, microchipped and heartworm negative.

December Adoptable Pet—!

This cool looking dude is called Captain Morgan. He came to us as a stray and we were all shocked when no one came looking for him. He gets along with other dogs and is loving yet playful. He is just 42 pounds and could stand to gain a few more pounds. We estimate him to be one year of age, so he should fill out a bit. Captain Morgan hops right in the animal control van when its time to go to the vet. He walks well on a leash and so far he has learned sit. With an experienced owner committed to training we think he would excel. Come visit our him at Kendall County Animal Control. He is neutered, up to date on vaccinations, microchipped and heartworm negative. His adoption fee is $120

Rescue Tails

Shortly before the Thanksgiving holiday, a cute little 7 1/2 year old Shih Tzu mix named "McDoogle" was brought in and surrendered because his owner who could no longer keep him. Despite his age, McDoogle was an energetic little fellow with lots of pep and spring in his step. He was extremely affectionate with everyone he met and loved attention. Unfortunately we discovered McDoogle had some minor food guarding issues so we decided a foster home would be a more suitable environment for him. We reached out to one of our rescue partners "One Tail at a Time" who lined him up with a suitable foster home. We received an update from "One Tail at a time" and they report that McDoogle has been adopted by one of their volunteers who is aware of his special needs and able to manage it appropriately. Thanks to "One Tail at a Time" McDoogle is living a great life in his forever home!

For Information on adopting or becoming a foster for "One Tail at a Time" please visit their website: <http://www.onetail.org/>
