Join the Kendall County Juvenile Justice Council and Judge Susan Clancy Boles and Judge Keith Johnson and hear important information on the increased problem of cyber bullying, electronic harassment and sexting/pornography. This program is geared towards the parents and addresses the social and legal consequences of this potentially criminal conduct with a goal of increasing awareness of what is cyber bullying, harassment, and sexting and how it may impact the lives of the students who participate in it. This must see presentation will empower parents to better understand their children in our evolving world of technology.

Don't miss this great opportunity to learn important information to protect your child. This promises to be an eye opening event.
