The suggestion was made to nominate Roger Matile for an award.

Mr. Asselmeier will update the application to 2024 dates and update the press release which will be released in January and February. An announcement of the application also usually occurred at the group meeting in February.

Conference on Illinois History

Commissioners reviewed information about the conference. Commissioners interested in attending the conference should let Mr. Asselmeier know.

OLD BUSINESS

Discussion of 2024 Meeting with Historic Preservation Groups

Mr. Asselmeier reported that the Pastor for the Au Sable Grove Presbyterian Church was agreeable to having the meeting at the church on Wednesday, February 21, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. Mr. Asselmeier needed to confirm if someone from the Church could provide a history of the building and congregation. He also needed to confirm if the food and drinks could be brought in for the meeting. Mr. Asselmeier is waiting to hear from the State if someone was available to speak on the benefits of landmarking a property. Member Bernacki will confirm if the building was ADA accessible.

Discussion occurred regarding the oldest structure in the Fox Valley and the oldest structure in Kendall County. No definitive answer was given. The suggestion was made to include an ask about the oldest structures on the invitation to the historic preservation groups in February. Mr. Asselmeier will ask Ken Itle about the oldest structure in Kendall and Bristol Townships.

The GIS Department is working with the Illinois Department of Agriculture to ensure that the information that the County has is accurate pertaining to centennial and sesquicentennial farms. Once the information is verified, a layer will be added to the GIS maps online.

Mr. Asselmeier will explore potential back-up speakers.

Mr. Asselmeier will check to see if the County has received the reimbursement check for the survey of the Kendall and Bristol Townships.

Discussion of Having Commission Meetings at Historic Locations in the County

Discussion occurred regarding having a meeting at the Pickerill-Pigot house. Concerns were raised regarding a lack of exterior lighting, if the large group meeting was held at the property in February. Subject: [External]RE: Oldest Structure Question

Hi Matt,

I don't have a definitive answer to that question, but we did identify a number of houses that we can be fairly confident pre-date the Civil War. However, usually the exact dates of construction aren't known with certainty, so I can't say which is the oldest. Also, it is likely that the City of Yorkville has a number of houses of similarly old vintage.

The 1830s were the pioneer tent-and-log-cabin days, and the earliest "permanent" structures would have been built in the 1840s. Very little survives from that era, so my guess is that the oldest existing structures are from the 1850s, although we can't rule out that some may be slightly older. There is also the possibility that something that appears to be from the late 19th century is actually an addition/remodeling of something much older. (It was more common to reuse older structures/older materials back then.) It would be necessary to get inside and look at the type of construction to be more confident.

In Kendall Township, very old houses likely include surveyed sites 551, 751, 854, and 1352.

In Bristol Township, very old houses likely include surveyed sites 524, 2024, 2126, 2322, and 2323.

Did the surveys identify the oldest structure in Kendall and Bristol Townships?

20 Historic sites to be marked

Kendall County Record

July 1, 1976

Plaques will be placed at 20 locations in Kendall County this year marking important spots in county history.

In Yorkville, a plaque will be placed on the lawn of the County Office Building marking the spot the time capsule is buried.

The site of the first Kendall County Courthouse will be marked with a plaque. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ketchum now stands on the property at the northeast corner of State Street and Fox Road in Yorkville. A private dwelling on the site was rented shortly after Kendall County was formed in 1841. At the time, $30 was set aside for fitting up the courthouse. The original building consisted of a brick basement and a frame second story. It was tom down in 1898. That first courthouse, which housed county government until 1845, was the scene of the county's first murder trial and also the only slave auction in the county.

A plaque honoring the first mill in the county will be placed in the Yorkville City Park where that mill's stone now sits. The mill was started by John Schneider in 1834 along the Blackberry Creek.

The Yorkville Congregational Church, West Center Street, Yorkville, will be marked with a plaque as the oldest standing church in the county. The church traces its history back to early settlers in Pavillion in 1834. The present sanctuary of the church was dedicated in June 1855.

A plaque will also be placed on the Kendall County Record building, 222 S. Bridge St., Yorkville. It is the oldest existing business in the county. John R. Marshall printed the first issue of the Record on May 7, 1864 in the building, which now houses the Variety Shop. In 1868, he built the present building. Marshall's son, Hugh, and grandson's, John and Robert, published the paper until 1966, when it was sold to Howard Pine. Present owners are Jeff and Kathy Farren. Among early items in the Record were Civil War news and black-bordered pages announcing the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln in April, 1865.

A plaque in Oswego will mark it as the oldest village. It was laid out in 1835 by L.F. Arnold and L.B. Judson, who planned to name it Hudson. The name was changed in a vote by early settlers, some of whom were from Oswego, N.Y.

Oswego was the county seat from 1845 to 1864. Petitions had been sent to the state legislature asking for the change in January 1845 and in an election Sept. 1, 1845, Oswego received a majority of the votes for county seat. A contract was let to Luke W. Swan for the construction of a courthouse there, which was paid off in 1852. By 1859, pressure grew to move the county seat to a more central location and in 1862 a site in Yorkville was chosen. The move was completed in 1864 after which the Oswego courthouse building was used as a village hall and later a school. Now the site is the location of the post office, bank and city park. Both Oswego plaques are at this site.

Two Indian reservations will be marked with Boulders, the Waish-kee-shaw in NaAuSay and Mo-ah-way in Oswego Township. Waish-kee-shaw, a Potowatomi, was the wife of David Laughton who it is believed settled in the county about 1828. She was granted one and a half section at or near the source of the Aux Sable Creek in an 1829 treaty. Mo-ah-way was granted one quarter section adjoining the north edge of Waish-kee-shaw land in the same treaty. There is no information available now on Mo-ah-way, but it is believed that the name was a woman's.

The Chicago to Ottawa Trail will be marked with a plaque on the Ray Vickery farm on Chicago Road in Seward Township. This stagecoach route was established by Dr. John L. a weekly stage from Chicago to Galena through Little Rock. That route "is marked with a plaque on the Charles O. Smith property on Galena Road.

The home of Jean Morrison, Joliet Road, Lisbon, will be marked with a plaque, as it was once a stagecoach stop.

The V. F. W. hall in Plattville site will be marked as the site of the National Guard Armory.

Representatives of the Underground Railroad In Kendall County who lived in Lisbon will be commemorated at the Lisbon Grade School. Some of the early families believed to have worked on the underground were Bushnell, Kendall, Hills, Russell, Kellogg, Holderman, Sherrill, Wright, Caton and Moore families.

A plaque to mark the site of the first settlers' cabin, built by Robert Beresford, will go on the Gerald Vogen farm In Section 31 of Big Grove Township, in the far southwest corner of the county. Beresford arrived in the county in 1826 and settled In Holderman's Grove.

Another plaque has been dedicated at the Pearl Coomer home, 102 Van Buren in Newark, the site of the first store in the county. The store was opened by George Hollenback in 1831. Called Hollenback's Trading Post, it was burned down during the Blackhawk War.

The first schoolhouse in the county was opened in a log cabin at Pavillion in 1834. Classes were taught by C.B. Alvard. The plaque to mark this first school will be at the site of Pavillion.

A plaque will be placed on the Plano Molding building in Plano because the company had its beginnings in the early reaper company in the county's first factory.

WSPY's radio station will have a plaque as the county's first radio station.

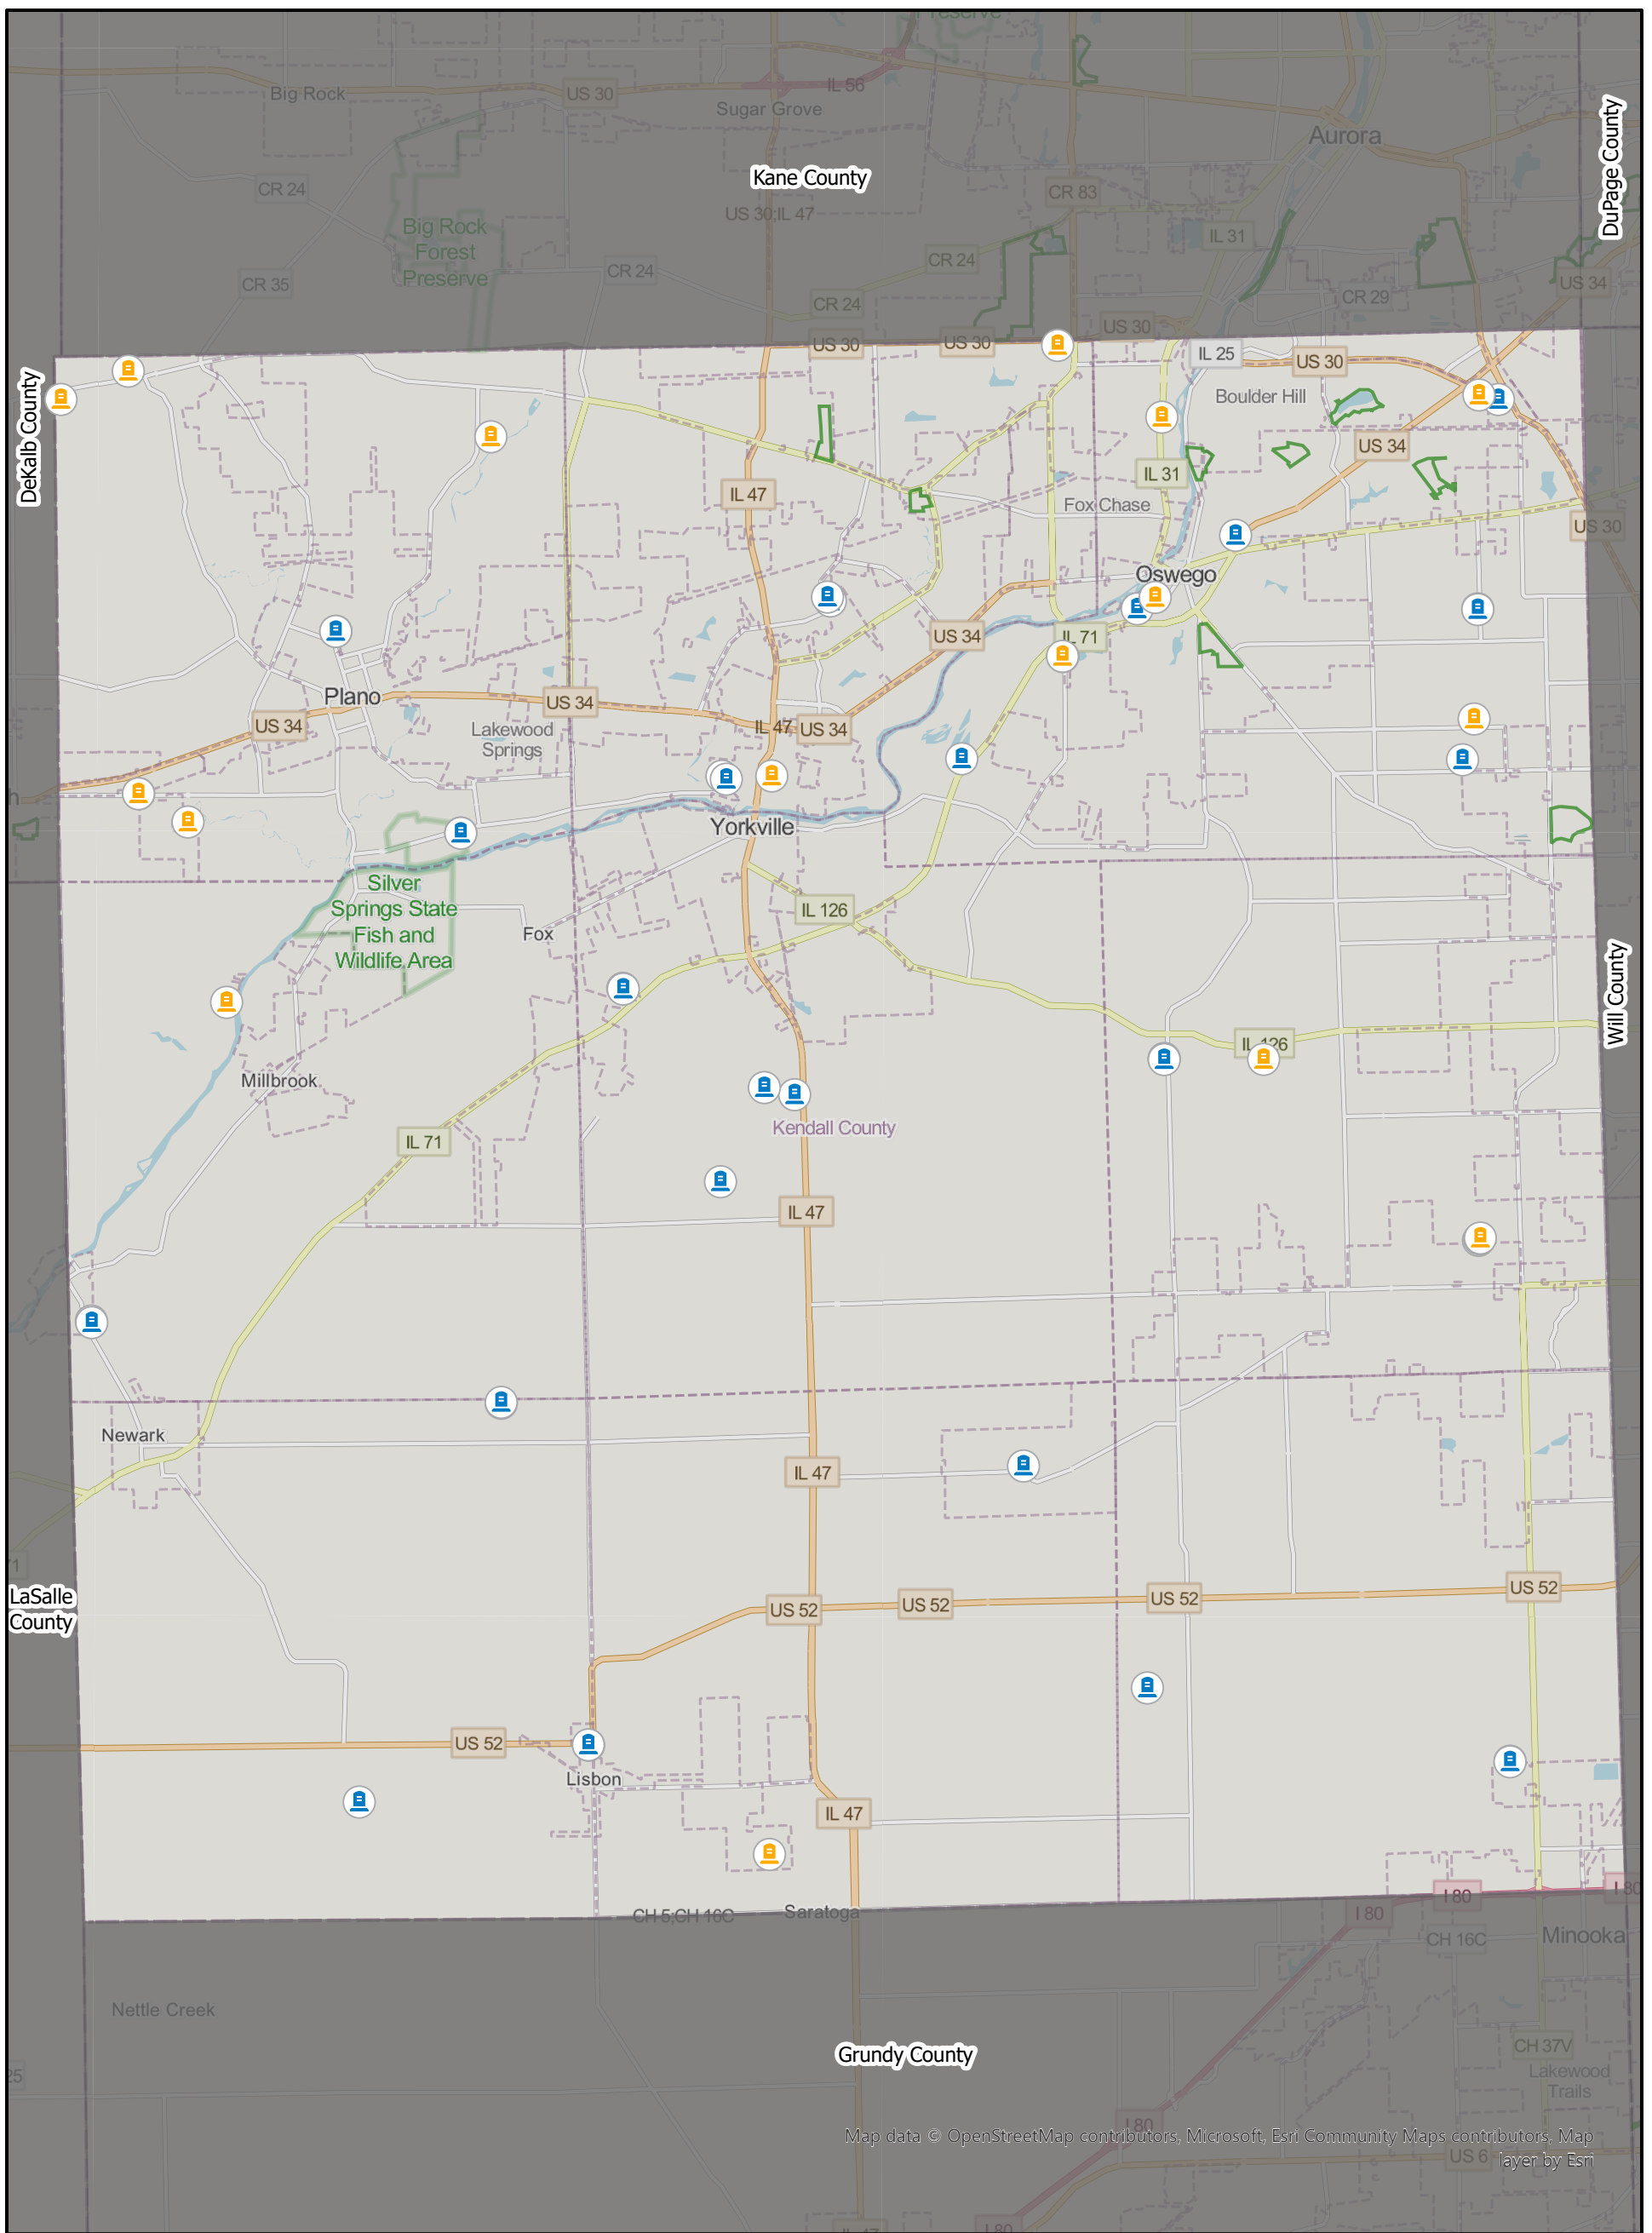

The Illinois Midland Railroad, which ran for two miles between Newark and Millington
In about 1917, will be marked with a plaque.

FARNSWORTH HOUSE

A site of the National Trust for Historic Preservation

Unique offerings await visitors this weekend at the Edith Farnsworth House Historic Site with special programming Saturday, September 30 and Sunday, October 1.

To commemorate National Hispanic Heritage Month, the Edith Farnsworth House will be launching its first tour in Spanish, at 1pm Saturday September 30. Led by Alejandro Saldaña Perales, PhD Candidate in Architecture at the Illinois Institute of Technology, the tour will encompass the rich history and legacy of the Edith Farnsworth House's architecture and grounds with a meticulous attention to detail. The Spanish tour goes beyond a traditional translation and creates an entirely new and unique experience. Furthermore, it will draw attention to the fact that Architecture, its debate, and enjoyment, is and must be within everyone's reach.

Information and Tickets Here!

For some fall fun suitable for the entire family, be sure to make time Sunday October 1 for a visit! An afternoon filled with nature, art, and architecture for the entire family is on tap from 1pm-4pm. Participants will explore the beautiful natural setting along the Fox River while discovering and learning through hands-on activities, a self-guided scavenger hunt, an outdoor treat, and more! The Edith Farnsworth House will even be open for a walk-through experience complete with a fall photo op at the lower terrace. Please note that guided tours of the Edith Farnsworth House are not included in this ticket and will not be offered during this event. (If you are interested in a full guided tour, please visit our ticket page, and join us at an alternate time!)
