Kendall County Sheriff's Office Announces Employee of the Year

The Kendall County Sheriff's Office is proud to announce its Employee of the Year, William Curry. William was nominated by a fellow employee of the Kendall County Corrections Division for his exemplary performance. The Kendall County Sheriff's Office employee recognition program is focused on recognizing employees for the great acts they perform. This program helps identify those employees that deserve special recognition whenever his/her duties are performed in an exemplary manner. Citizen may also be recognized under this program for an act that deserves recognition.

William Curry started his career with the Kendall County Sheriff's Office in February of 2005. William currently is the Federal Transport Deputy as well as handling day to day activities in the Corrections Division. During the last year William has completed the following projects besides his normal duties:

- William is a full-time Deputy and has taken over a very crucial area, that of Federal Transport Deputy.
- William has received Employee of the Year for his dedicated work and instrumental help in advancing our Federal Inmate Transportation services and partnership with the United States Marshal's Service.
- William has demonstrated commitment to the mission and values of the Kendall County Sheriff's office.
- William has handled all his new responsibilities with poise and professionalism.

To nominate an employee or citizen for this award you can either submit your nomination on our KCSO web page at www.co.kendall.il.us/sheriff or stop by KCSO and complete an Award Nomination form and submit it to a supervisor.
