12. RELOCATING WITH THE CHILD

a. Definition: "Relocation" means a move:

- i. From Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry or Will County, to a new residence within Illinois that is more than 25 miles from the current residence;
- ii. From a county other than Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry or Will, to a new residence within Illinois that is more than 50 miles from the current residence; or
- iii. To a new residence outside of Illinois that is more than 25 miles from the current residence.
- b. Procedure: A parent who has the majority of parenting time or equal parenting time who wants to relocate with the child(ren) must give the other parent and file with the court a written relocation notice at least 60 days before the relocation. At a minimum, the notice must include:
 - The planned date of the relocation;
 - The parent's new address, if known; and
 - The length of time the relocation will last, if not indefinite or permanent.
 - i. Agreement: If the other parent agrees to the relocation and any needed changes to this Parenting Plan and that parent signs the relocation notice, the relocating parent must file the signed relocation notice and new Parenting Plan, if applicable, with the court. The relocating parent may then move without any further court action.
 - ii. No agreement: If the other parent does not agree to the relocation or to changes to the Parenting Plan, or does not sign the relocation notice, then the relocating parent must file a petition asking for the court's permission to relocate.

FUTURE MODIFICATION OF PARENTING PLAN (check if applicable) If the following events occur, the Parenting Plan will be changed as follows:
Events:
Changes to Plan:
RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL
(check the options that apply to your case)

parent if he or she would like to care for the child(ren).

No Right of First Refusal: If the parent caring for the child(ren) needs someone to take care of the child(ren) during his or her parenting time, that parent is not required to ask the other

Right c	of First Refusal – Regular Care: If the parent caring for the child(ren) needs someone to take ca	are of the child(ren) during his or her parenting time for more than (enter numbe	er) hour(s) on a regular basis (e.g. for work), that parent must first ask the other parent
if he o	r she would like to care for the child(ren).
i.	Notice to the Other Parent: The parent who needs childcare must notify the other parent of the need for childcare as far in advance as possible and as soon as the parent learns of the need for childcare. The parent who needs childcare must give the other parent a deadline for responding to the request for childcare.
ii.	Response from the Other Parent: If the parent who needs childcare does not hear back from the other parent by the deadline and/or if the other parent is not available or not interested, the parent who needs childcare may then use the services of a babysitter or other caregiver.
iii.	Transportation: If the other parent agrees to provide childcare, transportation
	arrangements shall be as follows (describe transportation arrangements):
iv.	Failure to Provide Care: If the other parent agrees to provide childcare and then fails to provide childcare as agreed, this right of first refusal shall immediately terminate.
Right o	of First Refusal – Occasional Care: If the parent caring for the child(ren) needs someone to take	e care of the child(ren) during his or her parenting time for more than (enter numbe	er) hour(s) on an occasional basis, that parent must first ask the other parent if he or she wo	ould like to care for the child(ren).
i.	Notice to the Other Parent: The parent who needs childcare must notify the other parent of the need for childcare at least (enter time period) before care is needed. If this amount of notice is not possible, the parent who needs childcare must notify the other parent as far in advance as possible.
ii.	Response from the Other Parent: If the parent who needs childcare does not hear back from the other parent at least (enter time period) before childcare is needed and/or if the other parent is not available or not interested, the parent who needs childcare may then use the services of a babysitter or other caregiver.
iii.	Transportation: If the other parent agrees to provide childcare, transportation
	arrangements shall be as follows (describe transportation arrangements):

Rev. 08/16 D001-10

iv. Failure to Provide Care: If the other parent agrees to provide childcare and then fails to provide childcare as agreed, this right of first refusal shall immediately terminate.

III. DEFINITIONS

- 1. "Parental responsibilities" means both parenting time and significant decision-making responsibilities with respect to a child. 750 ILCS 5/600
- 2. "Parenting time" means the time during which a parent is responsible for exercising caretaking functions and non-significant decision-making responsibilities with respect to the child. Caretaking functions include:
 - a. satisfying a child's nutritional needs; managing a child's bedtime and wake-up routines; caring for a child when the child is sick or injured; being attentive to a child's personal hygiene needs, including washing, grooming, and dressing; playing with a child and ensuring the child attends scheduled extracurricular activities; protecting a child's physical safety; and providing transportation for a child;
 - b. directing a child's various developmental needs, including the acquisition of motor and language skills, toilet training, self-confidence, and maturation;
 - c. providing discipline, giving instruction in manners, assigning and supervising chores, and performing other tasks that attend to a child's needs for behavioral control and self-restraint;
 - d. ensuring the child attends school, including remedial and special services appropriate to the child's needs and interests, communicating with teachers and counselors, and supervising homework;
 - e. helping a child develop and maintain appropriate interpersonal relationships with peers, siblings, and other family members;
 - f. ensuring the child attends medical appointments and is available for medical follow-up and meeting the medical needs of the child in the home;
 - g. providing moral and ethical guidance for a child; and

h. arranging alternative care for a child by a family member, babysitter, or other child care provider or facility, including investigating such alternatives, communicating with providers, and supervising such care.

750 ILCS 5/600

- 3. "Significant decision-making" means deciding issues of long-term importance in the life of a child. These significant issues include:
 - a. Education, including the choice of schools and tutors.
 - b. Health, including all decisions relating to the medical, dental, and psychological needs of the child and to the treatments arising or resulting from those needs.
 - c. Religion, meaning the choice of religion or denomination of a religion, religious schooling, religious training, or participation in religious customs or practices, subject to the following provisions:
 - i. The court shall allocate decision-making responsibility for the child's religious upbringing in accordance with any express or implied agreement between the parents.
 - ii. The court shall consider evidence of the parents' past conduct as to the child's religious upbringing in allocating decision-making responsibilities consistent with demonstrated past conduct in the absence of an express or implied agreement between the parents.
 - iii. The court shall not allocate any aspect of the child's religious upbringing if it determines that the parents do not or did not have an express or implied agreement for such religious upbringing or that there is insufficient evidence to demonstrate a course of conduct regarding the child's religious upbringing that could serve as a basis for any such order.
 - d. Extracurricular activities.

750 ILCS 5/600; 750 ILCS 5/602.8

4. "Relocation" means:

- a change of residence from the child's current primary residence located in the county of Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, or Will to a new residence within this State that is more than 25 miles from the child's current residence;
- b. a change of residence from the child's current primary residence located in a county not listed in paragraph (a) to a new residence within this State that is more than 50 miles from the child's current primary residence; or
- c. a change of residence from the child's current primary residence to a residence outside the borders of this State that is more than 25 miles from the current primary residence.
